Hi Fanny, how are you? I must tell you about our holiday. We went to Ireland and the weather was warm and sunny! Our hotel room was not very comfortable. It was hot and small, so we asked for another room, but the hotel was full. We visited some interesting castles and old churches and went to the beach. In the evenings we went to some nice Irish pubs and listened to the traditional Irish music. That was fun, too. We also met some nice people – they're Italian. We took lots of photos and enjoyed our time together. Perhaps we'll spend our next holiday in Italy. See you soon.

Love
